Investing involves risk, including the possible loss of principal. International investments may involve risk of capital loss from unfavorable fluctuation in currency values, from differences in generally accepted accounting principles or from economic or political instability in other nations. Emerging markets involve heightened risks related to the same factors as well as increased volatility and lower trading volume. Narrowly focused investments and investments focusing on a single country may be subject to higher volatility. Investments in smaller companies typically exhibit higher volatility.

SOCL invests in securities of companies engaged in the social media industry. The risks related to investing in such companies include disruption in service caused by hardware or software failure, interruptions or delays in service by third-parties, security breaches involving certain private, sensitive, proprietary and confidential information managed and transmitted by social media companies, and privacy concerns and laws, evolving Internet regulation and other foreign or domestic regulations that may limit or otherwise affect the operations of such companies. The business models employed by the companies in the social media industry may not prove to be successful.

LNGR invests in securities of companies engaged in Healthcare, Pharmaceutical, Biotechnology and Medical Device sectors. GNOM invests in securities of companies engaged in Genomics, Healthcare and Biotechnology sectors. These sectors can be affected by government regulations, expiring patents, rapid product obsolescence, and intense industry competition.

FINX, SNSR, BOTZ, CLOU and MILN invest in securities of companies engaged in Information Technology which can be affected by rapid product obsolescence, and intense industry competition. The companies in which DRIV, EBIZ and AIQ invest may be subject to rapid changes in technology, intense competition, rapid obsolescence of products and services, loss of intellectual property protections, evolving industry standards and frequent new product productions, and changes in business cycles and government regulation.

The investable universe of companies in which FINX, SNSR, BOTZ, DRIV, AIQ, CLOU, GNOM, EBIZ, LNGR, BFIT, MILN may invest may be limited. Global X Funds listed are non-diversified.
